

LAWRENCE KITCHEN

Mr. Kitchen is an expert in energy price risk management and is noted for having pioneered energy derivatives trading by transacting the first crude oil market swap in October 1986.

He is an experienced advisor on commodity derivatives strategies and risk management systems to corporations and financial institutions. He is a managing director at Risk Limited Corporation.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

Vice President, Risk Management
Koch Industries
Wichita

Senior Trading Manager
Standard Chartered Bank
London

Vice President, Commodity Derivatives
Phibro Energy
Westport

Vice President,
Commodity Indexed Transactions
Banque Paribas
New York

TECHNOLOGY AND COMPUTER EXPERIENCE

MatLab, XL miner, Advanced Excel
Modeling Techniques, and MS Access

EDUCATION

M.B.A. Finance and International Business
University of Chicago, Chicago

B.S. Electrical Engineering and Finance
Kansas State University, Wichita

B.S. Finance
Kansas State University, Wichita